

Vicki Lynn Hayward

FEATURED LOCAL ARTIST

Vicki Lynn Hayward, VLH, was born and raised here in the Upper Valley, and now divides her time between the Upper Valley, Connecticut and New York City, soaking up as much as possible from what each has to offer.

VLH has taken the opportunity to learn about art in various forms by means of working with special needs children and adults, including opening a studio, perhaps a wee bit too close to the COVID outbreak, as luck would have it. This arena, if you will, has provided a wonderful opportunity to learn and grow, expressing herself fully.

VLH's fluid art, displayed here, is her focus. It is both experiential and liberating to the point of full freedom of expression.
